Here it is... The Sidekick from the StolenSidekick Saga

What was once owned by my friend Ivanna, and then in the possession of Sasha, then NYPD, and now in your hands....soon to be in YOUR hands. You can read up on the story on EvanWasHere.com/StolenSidekick and will be the SAME Sidekick that gets shipped to you. As you powered on, and from what I can tell, in working condition (these pics were taken on June 27th, 2006) being sold as is.. No box, manual, or SIM card. Only the Sidekick and charger

Some facts about the StolenSidekick Website.

- 1.) Over 400,000 websites linked to it according to Google (Search for "How NOT to steal a Sidekick")
- 2.) Went from 0 hits to 500,000 in 1 day...then millions every day for weeks after
- 3.) The website get about 3,000 emails a day regarding the story.
- 4.) The story was reported in multiple news sources such as The New York Time (twice), The International Tribune, and other newspapers as well as being reported on radio and TV stations around the world.

Special note about this auction:

We will be donating 1/3 of this auction total sale price to the Edwin Gould Services for Children and www.egscf.org. Their letter of approval can be seen at evanwashere.com/stolensidekick/charity.pdf. (This, T-Mobile has generously offered to match the TOTAL sale of the selling price and donate that to charity as well (up to $5,000). Their letter can be seen at evanwashere.com/stolensidekick/Tmobile.pdf

This is SECOND time we had to do the auction as I didn't have the proper paperwork for the charity auction though, within 2 days time, had gone to about $1,500 and over 20,000 hits.

So if you want a piece of internet history, bid on this item... Good Luck.

As for special requests from the winner of the auction, we are willing to try and meet them (such as newspaper clippings, autographs, pictures with wooden ducks (don't ask), etc.

Evan
